

International Student Organization

Sponsor Agreement

International Student Organization (ISO) is a non-profitable organization to group domestic students with international students studying in the U.S. Sponsored by the University, ISO is able to communicate with all international students entering each quarter. We would like to invite your business/organization as an honored sponsor to provide our members and students with better services and a joyful studying abroad experience.

As a sponsor, you and your business will have chance to receive recognition of ISO. It will be listed at our website, social network, newsletter (physical & virtual), etc. We will also consider your business product/service/location as a priority when choosing vendors and locations. High level sponsors will receive customized helps from ISO.
